

Palm Sunday opens the week of the Lord's Passion. Jerusalem welcomed Him like a King, carpeting His passage with His cloaks and waving palms.

This entrance on the back of a meek and simple animal is repeated with us at every Mass, when He comes in the humble guise of Bread and Wine.

In Holy Week, he wants to enter our souls. Let's prepare ourselves to receive him with hearts ready for the sacraments, by taking care of the little things and serving others.
